Moor Allerton Elderly Care is looking to recruit a Chair of its management Committee. The post will be vacant from September 2014, and the committee would like any interested person to become involved as soon as possible. MAECare was set up in 1995, and next year celebrates its 20th anniversary. It is well respected in the community and has over 100 volunteers to support its members, who are all over 60.

For further information and a discussion with the current Chairs, ring 0113 2660371 or view the website at www.maecare.org.uk
